Dear Partners,

We had our busiest season since we started Light Twenty-Four this past quarter. As time goes on and there are more and more opportunities to teach people on how to do Muslim Evangelism and set up ministries for outreach. I have been from the panhandle of Texas to central Florida and Kansas. The Church in Florida has a mosque being built on the property next door to them and they needed some training and encouragement. I so appreciate Pastor Brian's heart for outreach to their new neighbors. Through the conference on "Understanding Islam and Muslim's" it came to light that the Church has two members that are certified ESL teachers. They look forward to setting up a ministry of this kind to help them in their efforts for outreach.

There is a new ESL course that is being started at a Korean Church in Dallas soon and we have a volunteer that is going to teach this class. If you live in the greater DFW area and want to volunteer please send me a message via Facebook, email, or text me on my phone. Our Facebook page is Light Twenty Four.

Our team is growing and the Lord is adding new financial and prayer support monthly. This support is much needed. I am traveling as much as possible in the coming year to gain the additional support we need. I have many opportunities to share overseas but we are unable to budget any of these trips at this time. Thank you for praying with us on the raising of additional funds.

One of our partners in Lebanon is working on the Syrian border and they are only about 50 or 60 miles from the area that received the air strike. We also have a partner that is in the heart of the Middle East and the political unrest is a constant threat to stability. Our long time pastor friend Jay Mcgaughy is going into missions work with his new organization called World Baptist Harvest Fellowship. I will be
