

The McDonald's in Spain

Dear Pastor and Co-Labors

March 2017

Once again we are on the road. We arrived on Feb. 8th to freezing — I would like to emphasize freezing temperatures 14 degrees in Detroit with the knowledge that in our beloved Almeria, Spain the high was 65. After departing the airport, our first stop was Taco Bell to be reunited with family and friends. The next six months will be filled with a lot of traveling to visit many of our supporting churches. The first two weeks was a whirlwind making a DVD to use as we report to the churches. We are thankful that our son David put this together for us. Also, we had to get a car running, insurance and a host of other things. Our first trip to visit churches was to Florida. Believe me going to Florida had nothing to do with the freezing temperatures. On our way there we were blessed to be able to stop and visit our daughter Rachel in South Carolina where she works at Bob Jones University Press. We have been in some great mission conferences and many church services in FL, GA, LA, IA and MI all of which have been a blessing to us because we went to with the idea of being a blessing to them.

Our last Sunday in Spain was a blessed one! Florence was able to lead another precious child to Jesus for Salvation, 12 year old Deli Junior. —>>

For years I have been preparing men to preach and teach and now we have five. The reports that we have received from Spain so far are good. Those five men are doing a fine job teaching and preaching in my absence. Also, along with others, both our daughter Michele and her husband Juan Antonio are teaching Sunday School. We thank the Lord for all of the workers there in our churches.

The first two months of our furlough has passed so quickly that it makes me think of what many elderly people say, life is passing quickly right before their eyes. (Lord can I get a replay, please.) We know that the next four months will pass just as quickly and then it will be time to go home to Spain and we will say, "Where has the time gone?"

As for us, we are looking forward to getting back to Spain because we know there are so many who still need to accept the Lord as Savior.

Lord bless,

Please pray for:
